

PINE TREE QUILT GUILD
MEMBERSHIP MEETING
October 2, 2018

- A. The meeting was called to order by President, Sophia Day at 6:32 PM.
- B. VISITING QUILT
Oroville Piecemakers are showing their Opportunity Quilt. Raffle tickets are available.
- C. ANNOUNCEMENTS:
Jeanie Ferguson wants to carpool from Grass Valley to Auburn for the PIQF bus. Karle de Prose and Robi Holman are going from Grass Valley.

An Estate Sale is upcoming with sewing items available. Flyers were on the back table.

MAQ is having an open house Saturday, October 6 at Luchassi Winery in downtown Grass Valley.

Notify Sophia if you are interested in a free ticket to 'Road to California' January 24-27, 2019.

Lorna Straka, Vice President, talked about Hall of Honor. All votes go to her for counting. The count will be completed in Dec and the winner announced then.

Sue Miller for 'Team of Five' Quilt Show Chairs, announced a Quilt Challenge for small quilts. They should be no more than 100 inches total circumference. Have fun doing them.

Diane Klose, Opportunity Quilt Marketing, announced that $592 was made for the Opportunity Quilt and $349 for the Western Quilt, made by the Ladybugs mini group, at the Draft Horse Classic.

Diane Klose is also accepting sign ups to sell raffle tickets at the Country Christmas Faire November 23-25 at the Fairgrounds. Sew Eclectic is making a quilt to raffle.

Karle deProse, Budget Chair, presented options for next year's Jamboree. There is not enough money in the budget to continue as we have done. She asked us to vote between (1) Jamboree every other year or (2) charging $25 every year. The latter was easily passed.

Pat Gillings spoke for Speaker Workshop for next month's workshop on Wednesday after our Tuesday evening meeting. You can make your own landscape quilt with the instructor's, Jeri Patterson, help. It is a technique class, not a pattern class. Charge is $30 for the class.

Theresa Finn, Home Work Shop, announced a purse of many pockets class taught by Sophia Day, is scheduled October 25. She is taking sign ups now.

Mary Ross, Care and Share, is also helping at the Treasure Table. There are items from Eleanor Sagely's estate.

Sacramento Sewing Group, the neighborhood sewing group, meets at Ben Franklin's. Check with Frances O'Brien for dates/times.

Frances O'Brien, has Opportunity Block squares and Mystery Quilt clues available.
Bent Needle Divas, Jamboree committee, has a few open class spaces left.
Lois Hodges, Guild Challenge, explained there are letters available to draw. Whatever letter you draw, three items beginning with that letter must be on the front of the quilt. February, 2019, is the last month.

Marta Price, membership, 80 members are present, 5 guests, and 1 new member.
