September 28th is easy paper piecing.

October 26th is finishing a quilt.

Kris Cook is contacting the responsible person in each mini-group to gather information about when they meet, those participating, and if there are openings for new members to join. Those interested in joining a mini-group can contact her.

Sugar Pine Quilt Shop is one of those hosting an upcoming shop-hop. More information is available at the shop.

Sue Miller is on the nominating committee. They are looking for those who could fill the positions of vice president, secretary and treasurer.

Molly Cook has lost and found articles from the Quilt Show's Country Store.

Marjorie McConnell says the Community Service move is complete. There will be an open house the 15th.

Joan Mosley said the Boutique did well for the first year. The vendors made $4000 in sales. She also reported that the Jamboree classes are filling up.

Francis O'Brien reported that another Mystery Quilt will be starting soon. The cost is $6. Instructions for the quilt will be given every month.

Brenda Foster is making custom quilt labels.

Raedean Kidwell conveyed that there would be no program in August. In September Cathy Stone will give a talk, 'Her journey from then to now'.

Scoliosis Awareness Month: Marcia Lyon introduced her 14 year old granddaughter, Paige Lyon, who has been diagnosed with severe Scoliosis. The family need to raise over $150,000 to pay for an operation in New York. The medical insurance will not cover the cost because the operation is being done out of state. There was an article in the Union paper listing the various ways to donate and fund raising opportunities. Tonight there is a basket for donations.

Show and Tell: Many quilts were shown including 3 mystery quilts from this year.

Break: There were three cakes served as a thank you for the work all did making the quilt show a success.

Drawings:

The Quarter-yard-club and Mystery Gifts held their raffle.

Guest Speaker:

Raedean Kidwell introduced Dorie Javier of D's Quilting Designs. She has 40 years of quilting. Dorie shared her history and quilting tips.

She will teach her twisted scrap quilt at a workshop tomorrow, June 7th, from 9-3.
