

Pine Tree Quilt Guild of Nevada County

General Meeting—April 5, 2016

The meeting was called to order by Vice President Susie Hardy at 6:30 p.m.

Visiting Opportunity Quilts are from the Pioneer Quilt Guild and the Needle Nellies from Georgetown.

Announcements:

- Marjorie McConnell-Community Service announced:
- Kits are available tonight for pick-up at the Community Service table.
- Community Service will meet on the 3rd Tuesday at Eskaton.
- See Lois Hodges if you would like your name on the van and if your name is to be included on the program.
- Those quilt show committees needing additional volunteers are Tamara Cook-Equipment, Kia Hatch-Gate, Joan Mosely-Information Booth, Sally Monestier-Awards, Ballots and Judging, Mary Serpa-Quilters' Café, Ginny de Thomas-Vendors, Myrna Raglin-White Glove, Ruth Bertaccini-Set-Up and Country Store-Kathy Biggi.
- Forty-eight vendors are signed up to sell at the Country Store but not all have signed up to work a shift there. Remember to pick up any unclaimed items before 5:00 on the last day of the show.
- Heidi Emmett announced four spaces remain available for the workshop. You may start setting up at 9:30. Class will begin at 10:00 tomorrow and end at 4:00. It will be held at the 7th Day Adventist Church.
- Judy Coates Perez will be our speaker in June with a workshop entitled "Tea and Ephemera".
- Lorna Straka-"We Care" Committee received and read aloud a "thank-you" note from the Mokelumne School for the quilt we donated after the Butte Fire. The Needle Nellies raised over $50,000 for victims of that fire.
- Joan Mosely and Julie Berry have four outstanding teachers from our own guild who will be teaching classes at Jamboree on October 22nd—Barbara Ceresa, Frances O'Brien, Heidi Emmett, and Sandra Bruce. You may sign up next month for one of these classes which are a "thank-you" for working on our Quilt Show.
- Karla Rogers announced that Wendy Hill, a former PTQG member, has a new book available "Creative Quilt Challenges".
- Ardy Tobin-Computer Records asked for anyone who has not picked up a current roster please to do so tonight. As Hospitality Chair she asked us to welcome our guests and one new member tonight.
- Betty Maddox-Home Workshops announced that Eleanor Sagely will be teaching a Scrappy Strip Quilt in May on the 4th Thursday of the month.

- Nancyan Tracy-Membership Chair welcomed Sandy Ferguson as our new member and three guests tonight.

Show and Tell:

Our talented members showing tonight are: Myrna Raglin, Judi Bowers, Linda Reeve, Megan Tora, Frances O'Brien's Mystery Quilters and Kathleen Stanley.

Patchwork Star:

Jill Schlageter was introduced by Jeanie Ferguson, intrepid Star reporter. Jill's enthusiasm and delightful quilts were a real treat.

Intermission

The Needle Nellies donated a prize which was won by Lucky Judy Vaughn.

There were four winners of wonderful Quarter Yard fabrics tonight.

Mystery Gift winners were Nancy Holtz, Sue Deane, Judy Vaughn, Leslie Keilo-a guest, and Jeanne Pinche-Tulley.

Guest Speaker:

Heidi Emmett introduced our speaker for the evening, Donna Greenwald from Oroville who entertained us with collections of remarkable quilts and stories, too.
