Lynda Lasich – Judging Chairman

Ginny Lee – Quilt Show basket chair. She also needs donations. She was asked what was appropriate: fabric, books, notions, etc.

Ginni DeThomas – Lunchroom Chairman. Asking for desserts (must be non-perishable).

Diane Klose – Gate & Opportunity Quilt.

Marjorie McConnell – Vendor Chairman

Sue Miller and Kris Cook- Next quilt show meeting is March 14. We only have 23 quilts signed up so far. Deadline is April 2. We have ‘floating’ volunteers this year for people who don’t have a specific preference. It’s a great way to learn about the different committees and meet new people. Next year we need a publicity chair and a vendor chair. As a reminder, every quilt needs a sleeve and a label. Also, if your quilt has multiple techniques, choose the most prominent one. There is a cost for non-members to enter, as well as a fee if the quilt is to be judged.

Joan Mosley & Judy Hamilton – Joan for the boutique: can still accept new vendors through April 2. In the boutique, we’ll include a silent auction. Judy Hamilton will be responsible for that.

Linda Lasich on Judging: She is encouraging everyone to enter a quilt.

Sophia Day for Bernie Kringel – Mel Beach will be teaching Free Styling & Spiraling in April.

Marjorie McConnell - Membership Chair - 81 members and 7 guests

Joan Mosley – March Mixer. Vote for the challenge quilts, enjoy the food and visit with fellow guild members.

Jane Dunnington – Mini Group Chairman. Joined the guild 4 years ago. Joining a mini group helped her to really meet people. She talked about many advantages of being in a mini group and handed out a sign up sheet for people interested.

Judges for the hats: Sue Miller, Mary Ross and Ruth Bertaccini. Loveliest Hat – Karla Rogers. Wildest hat – Marilyn Engelking. Most Creative hat – Brenda Foster & Ingrid Peterson. The prizes were made by Kathy Biggi.

Ardy Tobin – 3 members and guests that are here because they lost their homes in Paradise. Shirley, Sarah & Diane.

Susie Hardy & Mary Serpa to announce the challenge winners. Best Art – Margaret Vodicka for Forest Fire Fury. Best Use of Theme – Holly Miner. Best Applique – Holly Miner. Best Tradition Quilt – Tamra Cook, Lillian Glaeser, Sharon Kreiss, Most – Humorous – Ruth Bertaccini. Favorite Quilt – Holly Miner. Most Special – Sophia Day & Margaret Vodicka.

Karla Rogers – Yuba City Quilt Show this weekend. Precision Quiltworks has quilted many quilts for the featured Quilter.

Board Meeting - March 14.
