

Pine Tree Quilt Guild of Nevada County

General Meeting—May 3, 2016

The meeting was called to order by President Diane Klose at 6:30 p.m.

Diane introduced visiting Opportunity Quilt guests The Oroville Piecemakers and The Folsom History Museum.

Announcements:

By Diane:

- Members of a mini-group are needed to develop the 2018 Opportunity Quilt.
- The July Picnic chairs are Nancyan Tracy and Raedean Kidwell.
- Sign-up to be a White Glove worker at the Nevada County Fair August 10—14. See Raedean to volunteer, please.
- Diane thanked Marjorie McConnell and Jeanne Pincha-Tulley for their work on our 2016 successful Quilt Show.

Announcements, General:

- The Feature of our 2017 Quilt Show is to be “Antique Quilts—Quilts of Our Foremothers”. Linda Lasich will meet with Jeanne Pincha-Tulley concerning antique quilts and a possible Featured Quilter.
- Sue Robertson has extra books from Country Store vendors #24, #13, #2 and #33, and items from the Lost and Found.
- Sandra Bruce introduced Courtney Brandon who would like to find someone to help her to finish a quilt of her mother’s.
- Susie Hardy presented Heidi Emmett and Christine Barnes each with a complimentary pass to the South Yuba Club Fitness Center in gratitude for their presentation at our February meeting.
- Heidi relayed that Donna Greenwald found an error in one of her patterns. Please see Heidi concerning the correction. Judy Coates will speak at our next meeting with a Workshop to follow on Wednesday.
- Christine Barnes will be teaching a class at Sugar Pine Quilt Shop on May 29th.
- Carol Gates was selling tickets on a quilt raffle for Dogs For Diabetics and taking pledges on a Walk to support Dogs For Diabetics, too.

- Joan Mosley and Julie Berry will be hosting the Jamboree for guild members on October 22nd at the Peace Lutheran Church. Joan showed samples from teachers Heidi Emmett, Barbara Ceresa, Sandra Bruce, Frances O'Brien and Ginny Lee.
- Linda Reeve has decals for sale—$3.00 or 2 for $5.00.
- Carol Gable from the Folsom Museum described an exhibit which will be there through May 29th from 11—4:00.
- Diane Rockwell announced an estate sale at her parents' home this week-end in Lake Wildwood.
- Ann Wilson explained that Eleanor Sagely will be teaching the Home Workshop and she will be taking sign-ups.
- Alice Ruth Mischke needs a quilter to repair strips on a silk quilt.
- Marta Price, Membership Chair, reported 91 members present tonight, 13 guests, and Opportunity Quilt guests.
- Sandra Bruce will be teaching a Matrix Workshop on May 21st and May 22nd at Sugar Pine.
- Kathy Biggi thanked those who helped at the Country Store and introduced Molly Cook as chairperson for next year. Inventory lists are available. Lost and Found items are here to be claimed tonight.
- Marjorie expressed thanks to all who contributed to the success of the show and recognized those committee chairs. There were over 900 attendees. Lois Hodges was thanked for the advertising, Mary Serpa for the Quilters' Café, Jeanne Pincha-Tulley for her direction. Ruby Foster bought both of Alice Swift's donated quilts. The Opportunity Quilt cleared $45,000 and was won by Lynn Short. The Volunteer drawing will be at the next guild meeting.
- Diane gave both Marjorie and Jeanne gifts in appreciation for their parts in the success of the Show.

Show and Tell:

- Lorna Straka, Ina Gibson and Betty Maddox displayed quilt blocks made by visitors. These will be donated to Community Service.

Patchwork Star: Jeanne Ferguson introduced Shelley vob Brincken who shared her first quilt, favorite quilt and several other quilts she has made for family, etc.

...

Intermission: Diane especially thanked with carry-out boxes those husbands who had helped at the Show. Cake and refreshments were served.

Drawings:

- Quarter Yard Club winners were Dyann Castro-Wehr, Donna Switzer, Sally Monestier and Deirdre Campbell.
- Mystery Gift winners were Margie Lucas, Ione Ishii, Judy Vaughn and Judi Bowers.

Reminders--Diane reminded us:

- Board meeting Thursday, May 12th, Eskaton Village.
- Community Service Tuesday, May 17th, Eskaton Village.
- Home Workshop, Thursday, May 26th, LDS Church on Hollow Way, Nevada City.
- General Meeting Tuesday, June 7th, Seventh Day Adventist Church, Osborne Hill Rd.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Christiansen, Secretary