

Pine Tree Quilt Guild of Nevada County

General Meeting—October 4, 2016

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 by President, Diane Klose.

Guests, Annette and Cindy from the Antelope Quilt Guild and Dianne from the Valley Quilt Guild of Yuba City were introduced and members were encouraged to support these guilds by purchasing tickets for these Opportunity Quilts.

President's Announcements:

- There will continue to be 2—4 showings of our Opportunity Quilt each month and volunteers are needed to travel with the quilt.
- The Country Christmas Faire will be after Thanksgiving at the Fairgrounds and volunteers are needed at this time.
- Guild funds are available to members from donations. Contact any Board member for this.
- The ribbon is available for the quilt donated by the Ladybugs Mini-Group which was raffled at the Draft Horse Classic.
- Election of officers was accomplished by vote of hands:

Pres.—Susie Hardy

Vice Pres.—Sophia Day and Nancy Holtz

Sec.—Bonnie Lattin-Hensel with Jane Dunnington and Robi Holmen as “back-up”

Treas.—Pat Gillings

Announcements:

- Joan Mosley and Julie Berry—Jamboree co-chairs announced sign-ups will be extended for Heidi's class due to some cancelations.
- Dianne Rockwell needs a volunteer to replace her as Junior Quilter Facilitator. She will be working with Robin Mello.
- Kate Grant reminded us she has the instructions for the President's Block for Diane. Finished blocks may be mailed to Kate.
- Heidi, as Program Chair, announced openings for Sandra Mollon's class tomorrow. In November at the regular guild meeting the Pixel Ladies will be teaching and demonstrating, etc. the wrapping of gifts.

- Jeanie Ferguson will be teaching a Hand Applique class November 11th at Ben Franklin's from 2:00—4:00.
- Jeanne Pincha-Tulley, Quilt Show Chair, announced the theme of the 2017 Show will be "Honoring Our Quilting Foremothers". Additional announcements regarding the Show may be seen in the October Newsletter.
- Marjorie McConnell—Community Service will be Thursday, October 20th at the Western Sierra YouthBuild at 12338 McCourtney Road from 9:00—3:00. C.S. has donated 78 quilts and more are needed.
- Karla Rogers, Susan Hopkins and Margaret Boothby have entry forms to be submitted for quilts of our "foremothers".
- Brenda Foster has a business making quilt labels.
- Lorna Straka and Kathy Biggi—We Care is for donating quilts for children who have lost their homes due to fire or other disaster. 187 quilts were donated last year. At this time there is need for 60 quilts by October 19th when they will be donated to current fire victims. We Care is a Mini-Group of quilters mostly within Nevada County.
- Ardy Tobin will be teaching techniques of quilting at the Home Workshop on October 27th from 9:00—3:00. She also has forms to be used to nominate a Featured Quilter for 2018.
- Christine Barnes will be teaching a class titled "Spumoni" on Sat. October 27th.
- Marta Price—Membership Chair reported 92 members in attendance tonight.

Show and Tell:

Our Guild talents were on display tonight to the tune of applause and sounds of delight: Cheryl Klein, Judy Hamilton, Jean McDonald, Carmen Crow, Heidi Emmett, Terry McFeely, Kathleen Stanley, Carey Daly, Brenda Foster, Rose Hensen, Jane Dunnington, Sophia Day, Tamara Cook, Molly Cook and Heidi Cook.

Patchwork Star:

Jeanie Ferguson—Patchwork Star Reporter introduced Bonnie Lattin-Hensel who shared from her collection of quilts using a variety of techniques and subjects. Jeanie has found another quilter of lovely works to share with us.

Intermission: 10 minutes.

Quarter Yard Club winners were:

1. Nancyan Tracy
2. Cheryl Klein
3. Christine Barnes
4. Rose Hensen

Mystery Gift winners were:

1. Rose Hensen
2. Rose Hensen
3. Sue Miller
4. Karla Rogers

Program:

Heidi introduced our speaker, Sandra Mollon, a quilt maker and textile artist who delighted us with a trunk show supreme! She will be holding a Speaker Workshop tomorrow teaching the creation of a fabric landscape.

Reminders:

1. Board meeting Thursday, October 13th, Eskaton Village, 49er Room
2. Community Service Thursday, October 20th, Western Youth Build Charter School, 12338 McCourtney Road, GV
3. Home Workshop, Thursday, October 27th, LDS Church on Hollow Way, NC
4. General meeting Tuesday, November 1st, GV Charter School.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:50.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Christiansen, Secretary