

Pine Tree Quilt Guild of Nevada County

General Meeting—September 6, 2016

The meeting was called to order by President, Diane Klose at 6:30 p.m.

Diane introduced quilter guests from the Gold Bugs Quilt Guild and the Roseville Quilt Guild who were selling tickets for their Opportunity Quilts.

Announcements:

- Diane announced we have expanded the area in which we will display our 2017 Opportunity Quilt this year to include additional guilds from NCQC.
- The 2018 Opportunity Quilt Committee has selected a design and purchased fabric for the quilt. The first showing of this quilt will be in June.
- Volunteers are needed to sell tickets and display our 2017 Opportunity Quilt at the Draft Horse Classic September 22nd—25th.
- Cathy Stone shared information about a workshop at Sugar Pine Quilt Shop September 22nd. She explained the North State River Run will include 10 shops and will be September 14th—17th. Continuing her announcements, the One Block Wonder Cubed class will be September 11th at Sugar Pine. Another date for the class to be taught will be November 13th.
- Joan Mosley explained Jamboree will be held at Peace Lutheran Church, October 22nd. Sign-ups are tonight and supply lists are available. Sandra Bruce, Frances O'Brien, Barbara Ceresa and Heidi Emmett will be teaching classes.
- Kate Grant explained the Newsletter has instructions and details about the President's Block.
- Linda Reeve has car decals for sale—3 decals for $1.00. She would like to have someone to continue selling these, as she will be moving in October.
- Jeanie Ferguson will be teaching hand appliqué and hand quilting at Ben Franklin's.
- Lois Hodges announced the Guild Challenge Quilting Heritage will be due at the March meeting.
- Margaret Boothby has applications for entries for quilts to be shared "Honoring Our Foremothers" at our 2017 Quilt Show.
- Lorna Straka and Kathy Biggi would like quilts for We Care fire victims, for our community and for Clayton fire victims. Please sign a donation form when you donate a quilt. These will be especially for Kindergarten—High School children. Quilts of any size and pillow cases will be welcome before October 1st.
- Susie Hardy, reporting on the quilt show for Jeanne Pincha-Tully, explained about the exhibit of quilts needed for honoring our foremothers and said volunteers will be welcome to explain about these quilts at the show.
- Marta Price, Membership Chair, reported 83 members present tonight, 5 guests and 1 new member, too.
- Marjorie McConnell announced: Kits are available to be picked up tonight.

Western Sierra School on McCourtney Rd. will be our new location for Community Service

A questionnaire was distributed to be answered tonight.

Quilts will be distributed during the year rather than just waiting until December.

- Dianne Klose is requesting quilts to be displayed at the Draft Horse Classic, and she is asking for volunteers to work at the Classic.
- Our 2017 Opportunity Quilt is on display tonight, and our tickets are available.

Show and Tell:

Our guild member talents were on display tonight with sharing by: Diane Klose (who will be teaching about a super purse at Home Workshop), Marta Price, Nancyan Tracy, Linda Reeve, Alice Ruth Mischke, Cheryl Klein, Lori Jacoby, Joy Waggener, Judy Bowers, Sharon Kreiss, Phyllis Brodie, Margaret Boothby, Robin Pierson, Carolie Brenan, Molly Cook, and Ladybugs.

Patchwork Star:

Jeanie Ferguson, Patchwork Star Reporter, introduced September's Star, Hannah Fenton, a talented 15 year old Junior Quilter who shared some of her interests and accomplishments.

Intermission: 10 minutes.

Mystery Gift winners were:

1. Wanda Neuharth
2. Karle deProsse
3. Sue Robertson
4. Judy Vaughn

Quarter Yard Club winners were:

1. Dierdre Campbell
2. Dierdre Campbell
3. Lila Sugg
4. Joy Waggener

Program:

Speaker Jane Haworth from Auburn was introduced by Raedean Kidwell, co-chair of Programs. Jane's "Journey of a Quilt Artist" was peppered with stories from her life as a quilter, sewer and artist. Her quilts and slides were enjoyed by all. She will return in April to teach a class here.

Sandra Mollon will speak at our October guild meeting.

Reminders:

- Board meeting at Eskaton Village September 8th at 6:30.
- Community Service at Eskaton Village September 20th from 9:00—3:00.
- Drop-In and Home Workshop at LDS Church September 22nd from 9:00—3:00.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:42 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Christiansen, Secretary