

PINE TREE QUILT GUILD

GENERAL MEETING

February 6, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 PM by President, Sophia Day.

The visiting quilt was shown by Needle Nellies from Georgetown.

New Board members were introduced by Sophia:

Vice President - Lorna Straka
Treasurer - Pavana Bohegian
Mini Groups - Anne Wilson
Publicity - Teresa Finn
Jamboree - Bent Needle Divas

Announcements:

Lorna Straka - March Mixer - 1 bag of non perishable food will buy a raffle ticket. Prizes are from Trudie Ferriera's estate (She passed 2017). Sew Happy and Uncommon Threads mini groups will be donating refreshments.

Jean McDonald - Requests that members pick up their envelopes with tickets for the opportunity quilt. She reported that 87 shifts were filled in 2017 for three events; which included: County Fair, Draft Horse Classic, and the Country Christmas Fair.

Marjorie Mc Connell - Community Service. Marjorie read a short letter from the Morris family, fire victims, thanking the guild for the quilt they were given.

Mary Serpa - announced she had a 'grandma's quilt' , partially completed, that needed someone to finish. Teresa Finn took the quilt.

Sharon Alves and Constance Clover - Quilt show chairs - need someone for banners, props, and hospitality. Sharon discussed about entering quilts in the show using the new electronic system.

Joan Mosely - Boutique at quilt show - 20 vendors have signed up; room for more.

Kathy Biggi - Mystery Gifts - The more tickets that are sold, the better the gifts.

Bernice Kringel - has a business in town and a blog. She reported on a friend whom has a business making homemade dolls for children with missing limbs/ physical disabilities. The dolls are individualized for each child to match their disability. She is asking for doll quilt donations, size 22 by 24 inches. Donors names will be entered for a drawing.
