

Pine Tree Quilt Guild of Nevada County

General meeting minutes January 5, 2016

The meeting was called to order by President Diane Klose at 6:30 p.m. After welcoming all, she introduced the new Executive Board: Diane, Susie Hardy, Pat Gillings, Sharon Elisor and Carolyn Christiansen.

Introduction of Opportunity Quilts: The Loomis Quilt and Fiber Guild with quilt was represented by Marty who encouraged purchase of tickets with a drawing for a gift later in the evening. The Antelope Quilters Guild with their quilt was represented by Kathy and Linda.

Announcements:

Diane announced a PTQG denim shirt is available for $20.00.

She will be needing items for the Silent Auction at the Quilt Show.

Marjorie McConnell reminded us that Community Service has been changed to the third Tuesday of the month at Eskaton from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

Kathy Bigi needs vendor sign-ups for the Quilt Show. She also will have kits available to complete for Community Service.

Joan Mosely, Scholarship Chair, said we will have $1000.00 available to qualifying students of Textile Arts or Fiber Arts. More on this in the Newsletter.

Heidi Emmett explained Laurel Anderson's project at the workshop will be scheduled from 10:00 AM—1:00 PM.

Jill Schlegeter's workshop in February will be creating clever pincushions. See Heidi for further information.

Karle deProse has important tax information for you if you have given donations to PTQG.

Ginny Lee and Jeanie Ferguson have commitment forms available for those intending to contribute Raffle Baskets at the Quilt Show.

Membership dues deadline is January 15th. Tonight we have 88 members in attendance, 1 new member, and 7 guests.

Ann Wilson informed us Home Workshops will meet on the 4th Thursday of each month with no charge for those participating.

Kathleen Stanley has Opportunity Quilt tickets available for us to pick up now.

Ardy Tobin, doing Computer Records and the Roster, explained that each of the Mini Groups will be welcoming new members and guests to our guild meetings with attention as they enter our meetings. Super delightful signs will be identification for guests and for greeters. The Busy Bees are greeters tonight. Now that we can identify new friends to our guild, let's all continue to make them welcome.

Patchwork Star:

Jeanie Ferguson introduced Sharon Koslosky, a returning member of our guild, who entertained us with many of her delightful quilts. More about Sharon and her quilts in the January issue of the Pine Needle Press.

Open Board positions:

Program Co-Chair/Apprentice who will work closely with Heidi Emmett.

Opportunity Quilt Marketing—A volunteer is needed to take the quilt to Oroville—Sutter Buttes on February 15th.

Hall of Honor: Ann Wilson was most deservedly honored for the many contributions she has made and continues to make to our guild and to the world of quilting. Her name will be added to those previously honored.

Show and Tell: Our prolific and talented quilters who shared their work were Judy Hamilton, Joy Wagener, Molly Cook, Christine Barnes, Lynda Lasich, Carolie Brenan, and Kathleen Stanley.

Intermission: Opportunity to purchase tickets from visiting quilt guilds, Quarter Yard Club, Mystery Gifts, etc.

Drawings: Four winning tickets were drawn for gifts from the Quarter Yard Club, and four Mystery Gift winning tickets were drawn. Marty from Loomis Quilt and Fiber Guild held her drawing from tickets of their Opportunity Quilt sold tonight.

Guest Speaker: The speaker for the evening was introduced by Heidi Emmett. Laurel Anderson from Carmichael shared experiences and many of her quilts from her first quilt to her most recent exciting creations. She brought patterns and explained briefly what will be covered in her class.

Reminders:

Board meeting, Thursday, January 14th at Eskaton.

Community Service, TUESDAY, January 19th at Eskaton.

General meeting, Tuesday, February 2nd at Grass Valley Charter School.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Christiansen, Secretary
