

Pine Tree Quilt Guild of Nevada County

General Meeting 10/17/14

Grass Valley Charter School

The meeting was called to order by Vice President Kate Grant at 6:30 PM. Kate welcomed the visiting opportunity quilt from the Pioneer Quilt Guild. Their show is coming up November 1st and 2nd at the Roseville Sports Center. The other visiting opportunity quilt is from Citrus heights.

Elections: Karle deProsse introduced the proposed slate of officers for next year: For President, Kate Grant; for Vice President, Diane Klose; for Treasurer, Karen Mitchell; for Secretary, Donna Switzer. Karle called for nominations from the floor, and there being none, she called for a show of hands in favor of the slate. All were in favor. There were none opposed.

Announcements: Kate announced that nominations to the Hall of Honor are still being accepted.

Judy Vaughn announced next month's program is American Jane. Also there are still openings for tomorrow's class with Rami Kim.

Joan Mosley reminded us about the President's block and showed a sample. Please turn in blocks to Joan by the November meeting.

Sally Monestier announced that the Embroidery 101 classed has morphed into Embroidery Block of the Month. The class meets the third Tuesday at 10:00 AM.

Kris Cook announced we have 72 members at the meeting tonight, one new member and one guest. We are looking for a new membership chair for next year.

Cathy Stone reminded us to pick up our Opportunity Quilt tickets tonight. For those going to PIQF with the Foothill Guild bus, a carpool (to Auburn) is being coordinated by Trish Morris-Plise. Upcoming classes at Sugar Pine Quilt Shop include Machine Quilting on 10/14, Happy Villages on 10/26 and a One Block Wonder class.

Kathy Biggi announced for Community Service that we are about 150 quilts shy of what we had for donations by this time last year. Mainly we need to have quilts quilted. It does not have to be elaborate quilting. We are also doing pillow cases and stockings. C.S. day is the 3rd Thursday as usual, 10/16. Kathy also announced she is chairing the Country Store at next year's quilt show. Seller info sheets are available tonight. You may also donate items to the Guild to sell.

Betty Maddox announced that the Home Workshop class this month will be making a Disappearing Nine-Patch with Lorna Straka. November 20th will be trapunto with Myrna Raglin, and a materials list is available.

Frances O'Brien announced that she has the #7 Mystery clue. Also Ben Franklin is hosting Ladies Craft Night Out this Saturday, including refreshments and a video about the new batik process. The cost is $10.

Jeanie Ferguson introduced tonight's Patchwork Star, Terry McFeely. Terry showed quilts and dimensional flowers. Her invention, Terial Magic was shown as a "Must Have" in a recent issue of Vogue Sew News.

Show and Tell: quilts, garments and bags were shown by Joy Waggener, Lynda Lasich, Karle deProsse, Marta Price, Judy Hamilton, Trish Morris-Plise, Kathleen Stanley, Janene Powell, Jeanne Pincha-Tulley, Judy Bowers, Betty Maddox and Sharon Kreiss.

After the break, drawings were held for the Quarter Yard Club and Mystery Gifts.

The speaker was Rami Kim, who has won many awards for wearable art. She presented a humorous and entertaining power point show of her work, followed by a live fashion show of her garments and quilts.

Reminders: the next Board meeting is this Thursday, 10/9 at Eskaton. The Quilt Show Committee meets Tuesday 10/21 and our next General meeting is 11/4.

Respectfully submitted by Sue Robertson, secretary.
