

General Meeting Minutes

Tuesday, April 5, 2022

Called to Order at 6:30 by President Lillian Glaeser

Attendance: 67 members, including 2 guests

- Susie Hardy was recognized as being the Hall of Honor for 2020.
- Jeanie Ferguson shared the sad news that Betty Maddox passed away. She was asking for volunteers to help her to display Betty's quilts at the memorial service the family is having and to potentially provide food. Several members spoke about how Betty impacted the guild and their own lives. She was a cherished guild member and will be missed.
- Jeanie Ferguson introduced Patchwork Star Elaine Hartnett, who shared her delightful wall hangings and quilts.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- 1) Sophia: Reminder to have guild members hit "submit" on the website when they enter their quilt and/or sign up to volunteer. She was also encouraging members to sign up to volunteer as there are many openings still to be filled.
- 2) Jeane shared that there's a studio sale and pointed to a flyer in the back of the room.
- 3) Lori Jacobi introduced new members and returning members and assigned mentors to the new members. (only one new member present at the meeting)
- 4) Paulette Snyders: Shout out to the members – she announced that we collected $530 for the café last month.
- 5) The last Quilt Show meeting is April 12 from 1:00 – 3:00.

SHOW AND TELL:

Four members showed their works; we saw baby quilts, full sized quilts, and other projects completed by these talented members.
