St. Canice Center, Nevada City, CA

Call to Order at 6:30 PM by President Lillian Glaeser

Attendance: 46+, 2 guests

Potluck Meal: Everyone enjoyed a sumptuous potluck meal.

Announcements/Presentations:

- 1) United Methodist Church is having a Nativity Tea on Dec. 16.
- 2) Holly Miner reported that our Country Christmas Opportunity Quilt made $529.00.
- 3) Lillian presented the Hall of Honor Award to two long time Guild Members: Mary Serpa and Joy Waggener, Charter Member.
- 4) Sophia Day presented President Lillian with blocks made by the membership to commemorate her two years as Guild President.
- 5) Karle de Prosse, Finance Chair, presented the 2024 Budget for membership approval. After a brief discussion, Holly Miner moved to accept the budget. Susie Hardy seconded. The motion passed.
- 6) Contest: Members were encouraged to dress in fancy, festive, or ugly holiday attire for judging and prizes. Four young women from Mt. St. Mary's School were the judges.
Fourth Place: Vaughn Rodriguez
Third Place: Laura Windus
Second Place: Marjorie Woodall
First Place: Joan Hartung

Show and Tell: More than 25 quilters showed their Christmas/Holiday quilts.

Special Presentation: Karla Rogers paid tribute to both Lillian and Bob Glaeser for their service to country and community by gifting them a special Row by Row quilt done in patriotic colors!

Raffle: A special raffle was held for the table centerpieces that were fabric wreaths made by Lillian.

Adjournment: President Lillian Glaeser adjourned the meeting at 8:18PM

Respectfully submitted,
Chris Panos, Secretary
