PTQG General Meeting Agenda

Call to Order 06:30 pm. By Jeanne Pincha-Tulley

Reminder to enter quilts by tomorrow.
Welcome to Pioneer Quilt Guild.

The “I See You” Award was given to Ina Gibson and Nancy Holtz were recognized for community service. 220 quilts were delivered last year to many local organizations.

Holly Miner was also recognized for doing the Website, graphics, Opportunity Quilt.

Marjorie Woodall received a prize for spotting all the diamonds and bunnies in the newsletter.

Susanne Haislet announced that a bag of fabric and roster was left at the last meeting and it's in the back.

Hospitality Report: 78 members attending and 4 guests. Rosters are available for members as well as purchased opportunity quilt tickets. There was one new member and one returnee tonight. Six new members joined in February.

Ryan's Cases for Smiles: 477 have been made. We are almost 1/3 of the way to our September goal of 1500.

Jeanie Ferguson Patchwork Star Reporter Featured Member: Helena Heinzelman. She is a “mod” non-traditional quilter showing a Grateful Dead pixelated quilt, a hand paper pieced quilt and bright Christmas quilt. She participates in Sew-Topia and travels to other cities for quilt retreats.

Quilt Show announcements.

Vaughn Rodriguez and Rachel Peña will return as quilt show chairs next year. Karle deProsse is taking sign-ups for volunteers and to answer questions.

Remind people on social media about the show as it is a week earlier.

Paulette Sanders, Chair of the Café, asked for volunteers for desserts and coffee. She also sent around the donation bag for dessert purchases.

Joan Mosley and Susanne Haislet – publicity. Sent out many notices and are now focused on locals. They asked the membership to post something relevant to the show and invite people.

Ruth Bertaccini and Judy Hamilton – Silent Auction. Bring your final donations to Nancy at Community Service.

Turn in money for judged entries.

Lillian Glaeser and Robi Holmen – Country Store: you can still sign up. You need to price everything yourself.

Kathy Biggi – Ruby Posters to highlight personal and Guild achievements need to be completed. Due by the 15th of April.

Mariah Bath – Basket Committee needs volunteers to sell tickets to the many baskets that have already been put together.

Terry McFeely and Beth Stagner- Vendor Committee – 7 vendors are signed up. No more vendors are needed.

Break: 10-15 minutes

Guest Speaker: Thom Atkins

Thom presented multiple examples of his very intricate work. Each large piece takes months, so he needs to sell them for $10,000 plus. He no longer beads quilts and thus has a large collection of beads. He makes 3D pieces by beading on paper and stuffing it.

Show and Tell: 20 people shared their most recent creations. We saw a variety of techniques and ability levels – all lovely.

¼ Yard Club Winners: Mary Serpa, Holly Miner, Susan Pollard, Holly Miner, Rosie Mariani

Mystery Gifts Winners: Mariah Bath, Cindy Maurice, Beth Stagner, Carrie McDowall, Robi Holmen

Adjourn: 8:30 p.m.
