We look forward to having Marjan Kluepfel as our guest speaker at our November 1, General Meeting.

“The Evolution of an Art Quilter and Fabric Dyer” will be the topic. This is an educational slide lecture and trunk show with a big dose of humor woven in. You will hear about her untraditional approach to quilting and how she creates her hand dyed fabrics. She explains where her ideas and inspiration come from, how her work has evolved over the years and why she does what she does. Plus, she states “You can learn from my mistakes so you won’t make them yourself!”

Marjan was born in the Netherlands, lived in Hawaii, Florida, Australia, and South Carolina. Working in Academia for many years, she is now a full-time studio artist in Davis, California. She has been creating art quilts since 1990 and has been teaching her fabric art both nationally and internationally.

Marjan will be teaching the Speaker Workshop the following day, Wednesday, November 2, at the St. Canice Catholic Center. Due to the popularity of her workshop, the class is full.

Pre-Meeting Dinner at Diego’s Restaurant

You can meet Marjan prior to the General Meeting at Diego’s for an early dinner at 4 pm. (217 Colfax Ave, Grass Valley).

Diego’s has requested cash only. Reservations are required.

November 2022 President's Message

Hi Ladies

Halloween will soon be behind us, then on to the end of the year holidays. This is the time of year when everyone gets so busy. Don't let the pressure get to you. If we learned anything from Covid, it's that family, friends and enjoying the people around us is what we need and want.

Remember, it's the month of Thanksgiving and we all have so much to be grateful for, our families, friends, our talents and our beautiful country. If you can't get a project completed or if it's not perfect, don't worry. Instead, enjoy and have gratitude for all we have.

I'm honored that you want me back as your president next year...thank you. There are so many new members and they all seem to be enjoying the guild so make new friends, join in and share your talent. We have a great Board and with everyone's help, it will be another fun year.

Wishing everyone a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Blessings,

Lillian Glaeser, President

JAMBOREE 2022

The October 8 Jamboree was wonderful! Attendees learned new techniques and skills from the presenters. Kris Cook and Sandra Bruce shared their appliqué techniques. With over 30 of hand quilting experience, Margaret Boothby shared her techniques, supplying each participant with a “sandwich” for practicing the newly acquired skills. Pat Nelson shared her vast knowledge of sewing machines and all that they can do. Constructing blocks using Metro Hoops, was presented by Frances O’Brien. The partially finished products were colorful and fun! Everyone seemed to have a good time, and about 20 lucky souls went home with a door prize.

We’d like to thank all those who stepped forward to help set-up and take-down. You made our job much easier. Thanks so much. A special thanks to Sophia’s husband, Pat, who stepped up early on his day off, to unlock a problem door! Sue is very grateful!

Are you thinking of a way to be more active in the Guild and get to know more Guild members? Participating on the Jamboree Committee is great way to do that. Now is the time to start organizing the 2023 Jamboree. The event is fun to organize. Contact one of us if you want to join in on the fun.

Sophia Day, Susie Hardy, Sue Miller, and Mary Serpa

November will be the last Treasure Table for 2022. There will be a wide variety of items available including an old non-working Featherweight, a wide variety of rubber stamps, two quilt racks (both a floor and wall rack) and the normal array of patterns, books and fabrics.

This will be the last stint at the Treasure Table for Judy and Lorna. We are looking for someone to take over for 2023. Let us know if you are interested.

*H*ello! Rachel and I are very excited about our Guild's upcoming quilt show theme, "Celebrating the Artist Within". It speaks to our hearts because we are inspired by the talent, enthusiasm and creativity amongst fellow guild members. Our Guild's spectacular quilts attract repeat attendees from many other guilds who travel far and wide to enjoy and be inspired.

It truly takes many hands to organize and plan the high quality show experience our Guild is known for. A big thank you to all the committees who are already working toward the upcoming spectacular event!

There are two committee chair positions still available: Equipment, and Set up/Take down. Please join the show preparations by heading up one or both of these committees. Contact Vaughn for information: crumbquilter@gmail.com or call (530)575-6046.

Monthly meetings for the Quilt Show Committee will resume in January. Details will be announced.

All guild members are invited to attend the Quilt Show Committee meetings. Do join us! You will learn about the inner workings of the planning process and will be impressed by the group knowledge of experienced committee members.

Check your calendar for Wednesday, May 3 through Sunday, May 7 and match upcoming volunteer opportunities to your availability. All helping hands are appreciated!

Rachel and Vaughn, Co-Chairs

Sign up for Sandra Mollon's Waterlily Workshop

Sandra Mollon is the Guest Speaker for our February 7, General Meeting. She will present her Fused Art Quilt workshop the following day. (Location to be announced) By creating a Waterlily, students will learn how to choose the right color and value for each petal or leaf, shade with colored pencils or ink and fuse together to make a flower. Kits may be purchased ($20) in class that contain fabrics for part of the project.

Visit our website under "Future Events" for more information and to make a reservation, or contact Sue Marshall, Speaker Workshop Chair.

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

We had six new members join the Guild at our October General Meeting. Welcome to Yvonne Bartlett, Dallas Cruickshank, Tiffany Day, Kim Marcussen, Cheryl Morden and Lynn Wood.

Please be hospitable and answer any questions they may have about the Guild and our activities. With these additions, we now have 195 members including 17 Affiliates. Thirty new members joined in 2022!

A big thanks and congratulations to our newest members. We hope you will find that your decision to be a part of Pine Tree Quilt Guild was one of the best decisions you made in 2022.

November is the start of our early renewal process for 2023. You will find the newest membership form at the end of this newsletter as well as on our PTQG website. Affiliates: your form is on the website. The form may be mailed or, if you want to save yourself a stamp, both Ben Franklin and Community Service will be collection sites for renewal returns. (Checks only if you use BF or CS to drop off your renewal form)

Warmly,
Ruth Bertaccini, Membership Chair

COMMUNITY SERVICE

From Nancy Holtz, Community Service Chair

Our biggest need is for long-arming twin and lap size quilts. Quilts do not have to be squared up or bound when returned to CS.

There are several ladies who love to bind.

If you would like to donate a quilt top, CS will supply the back and batting.

Kits for quilt tops, placemats and pillowcases are always available.

We are still collecting empty spools and there is a big bag of selvages for the taking.

All are invited to join us on the first and third Thursdays each month (only first Thursday in December) from 9am-1pm at the back of the Nevada County Historical Society building next to Sierra Presbyterian Church at the wonky corner of Ridge Rd and Nevada City Hwy.

Scholarship Past Recipient Update

From Nancy Holtz

My car lived at Sierra Auto Body this past week. Mike and Ingrid Cebollero own that business. Their son, Garrett, was the PTQG scholarship winner several years ago. They gave me this update.

Garrett is 22 years old and graduated from Cal Arts in Santa Clarita with a Bachelor of Arts in Set Design. He currently has a full-time contract with Biereaubetak in Hollywood. It is an international company with offices in New York, Beijing and Paris. He is very happy in his chosen vocation.

PAINT CHIP CHALLENGE

The Challenge is underway, and we hope you are busy thinking about, planning, working on, or finishing your Paint Chip Challenge quilt. Only four more months until the reveal!

To participate, simply choose a paint chip in a color of your liking. Be sure there are Dark, Medium, and Light color shades featured on your Chip card, as these shades must be incorporated into your quilt.

- * Any technique(s) can be used.
- * The quilt must be no larger than 40" per side, and completely finished (quilted and bound).
- * A 3X5 index card with your quilt title, and a brief description needs be included
- * Your Paint Chip sample must be pinned onto the quilt or be attached to your index card.
- * Fabric guidance: 1) The Paint Chip Color in Dark, Medium and Light shades. 2) The fabrics may be patterned or solid. 3) Other colors allowed are Black, White, or Cream. (Use one, two, or all three colors. No other colors may be incorporated.)
- * The Quilt Reveal will be at the March 2023 General Guild Meeting.

Have FUN and let the Paint Chips be your inspiration!

Any questions, give us a call or email. Our information is in the Roster.

IT'S A ROW-BY-ROW QUILT EXCHANGE!

A NEW EVENING GROUP OPPORTUNITY FOR GUILD MEMBERS

Come join us for a Row-by-Row Quilt Exchange. Starting on January 13, 2023 and completed in June, 2023, this six month activity is a great way to expand your skills, try new block patterns or techniques and of course, exchange ideas with friends. This is open to all levels of quilters.

We will meet the 2nd Friday of each month at Ben Franklin from 5:30 pm to 6:30 pm. Josh, Ben Franklin's owner, has graciously agreed to let us meet in the classroom located in the back of the store, free of charge!

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- Each participant will receive a brown bag and entry form upon signing up.
- Participants create the first row (starter row) using any theme or design desired.
- The brown bag, containing the starter row and additional fabric if desired, will be collected by the exchange facilitator at the first meeting.
- The facilitator will anonymously "exchange" your bag for another participant's bag.
- You take the bag home and add a new row (or rows) using your own fabric or fabrics provided.

Each month the process is repeated, meaning five other quilters will be add to your initial row and you will add to five other participants' Row-by-Row project too! At the end of the six months of exchanges, you receive your Row-by-Row quilt top back to complete however you wish!

Size requirements and other details will be provided at sign-ups. Guild members have participated in similar Round Robin exchanges in the past and always had a great time meeting new friends and learning new skills! Please avoid being intimidated by the idea of working on someone else's project.

Sign-ups will be at the November and December Guild meetings.

We hope to have a final "reveal" party/potluck at the end of August and present the quilts during Show and Tell at the September Guild Meeting.

Sue Deane Patchwork Star November 2022

Bold and breathtaking! Oozing storybook charm, Sue's 1924 Nevada City home featured an abundant array of richly textured antique furniture, a tribute to her family's storied history. Family heirlooms punctuated her living room. A tall ornate grandfather clock proudly announced our 10 am meeting. A filled-to-the-brim hat rack, two comfy rockers and cozy wood-burning stove showed their importance. Two antique stained glass lamp shades announced Sue's daring ability to succeed in that craft.

Sue is very self-sufficient and has a determined can-do spirit. Most of her achievements she owes to her grandmother. "My grandmother could just look at something and make it!" Full of smiles and laughs, Sue began describing an impressive litany of her passionate endeavors she had shared with her grandmother since she was a small child. She was taught well. I mused: Just how many hobbies can one woman successfully have? I lost count at ten. . .

For about 34 years, Sue has been sewing quilts. They came pouring out of her closet, rolled into wrinkle-proof bundles. Most were queen-sized, some hand quilted, some double sided. The "twins" are two Dear Jane quilts constructed in a quilt-as-you-go method. Sometimes Sue uses crayons or fabric paints to enhance a block's motif. Sewn colorful hexie flowers, all in batik, were strewn upon the rug for final review. Paper pieces with a touch of fabric glue will be easily removed.

Sue's "toy room" is her dreamer's domain, a fully contained granny unit addition to her existing home. Cozy and replete with kitchen, bathroom and elevator access, she can retreat in perfect comfort. This "toy room" also houses Sue's stained glass workshop. A smaller but very complete sewing room houses a Bernina Q20 for longarm projects—even king-sized projects.

Quipping, "I usually make 'draggers'", meaning quilts for kids to drag around on the floor, adding "I'm a putz-er." She bounces from one hobby to another. Since Sue does not require much sleep and since her husband and son work and live in Bremerton, Washington, she has lots of time to putz. She will be joining them for the holidays. Nevada City, however, will be their permanent retirement home someday.

Pacific International Quilt Festival 2022

I proclaim 2022 the year of the Long-arm/Mid-arm! It's a growing passion no longer limited to just a few. Grandma's Baltimore Album themes are still very much alive. They are, however, being morphed into kaleidoscopic explosions of unbelievable grandeur. These larger beauties should not lay prone upon a bed. Infinitesimal longarm curlicues and intricate meanderings are being wedged in between the smallest 1/8" petals, leaves and impeccable circles. There's no stopping you ladies now! This year's quilts were awesome flowers, I was the bee.

Georgetown's Thursday bus and Foothill's Saturday bus allowed many of us to go. Energetic shoppers, crowded aisles, ladies abuzz with their own anxious obsessions, gave a most convivial atmosphere. Sue Marshall loaded a big boxed new Juki onto our bus! Eager ladies clamored for plentiful Halloween fabric choices. I purchased a few yards of fabric from ByHands, Buena Park. Long-arm companies from afar allowed much testing and demo action.

The "I" in PIQF was absent this year. Due to problems with international shipping, (cost, delays, lost quilts) there were no entries from any foreign countries on display. However, several special exhibits were enjoyed. As always, MAQ represented our area very well. Karle deProse had a quilt selected for New Quilts of Northern California. I won a Blue Ribbon for "Bridgeport, California" in the category of Best Handwork. Pajaro Valley's exhibit featured Pet Portraits. Cherrywood hand-dyes featured bubblegum pink tributes to Princess "Di". Ann Zemke's impressive obsession with all things Kaffe Fassett were large and dazzlingly bright. Modern themes held sway with more edgy subjects. I glimpsed a recognizable Stacey Abrams likeness from afar.

We admired the plentiful use of non-traditional fabrics: neckties, velvets, satins and silks, filmy see-through wavy leaves. A story quilt of Mom's old wedding dress cut into awesome goose tracks. Clothing was rife with uninhibited foofaraw, brave and gaudy. Runway fare only? A wedding dress of subtle toned small yo-yos complete with train brought the Best of Show prize for garments.

Test your mettle. Try something new. Let's go again next year. The bus was smooth-sailing and worry-less. It's clearly the Year of the Long-arm and you guys own it!

Jeanie Ferguson, Reporter

Home Workshop

Although we usually do not meet in November, we have the opportunity for a “community sew” on November 10. There will not be a presentation. This is a time to catch up and finish projects in progress, like the ones started at Jamboree or Ina Gibson’s crazy table toppers. Maybe add the embroidery that was common in olden times, just like on my doll blanket.

Working in a group allows for collaboration and advise, as well as a jolly good time. If you are interested in attending, please contact me. Ironing boards, irons and extension cords will be provided.

We will be on a roll in the new year. On January 26, Kathy Biggi will present “Go Bag.” This is more than just making another zippered bag. It’s an emergency preparedness bag and Kathy will go over the purpose of the bag and what should be kept in it.

Sue Marshall will teach a two-part free motion class on February 23 and March 23. The project panels needed will be available at Ben Franklin. You will also need a “slippery surface”, such as a Sew Steady or Super Slider mat. If the cost of the mat is too much for a first attempt, talk to me when you sign up.

April might bring more rain, but it will also bring Margaret Vodika and a coffee mug caddy. No, not a mug rug, but a caddy with outside pockets as well as the inside to have by your sewing machine with tools. Join us on April 27, 2023.

We are working on providing more classes and projects such as English paper piecing, bear making and Sashiko. Check the website or the Home Workshop Table at the General meetings for the more information.

I look forward to seeing ALL of you at one of these events.

If you are interested in helping with Home Workshop, planning activities and helping with set up, I could surely use another person or two.

Theresa Finn, Home Workshop Chair
