

2023 Quilt Show Minutes

Aug 30, 2022

Attendees: Vaughn Rodriguez, Lillian Glaeser, Susanne Haislett, Barbara Ceresa, Sally Monestier, Holly Miner, Susie Hardy, Sophia Day, Marta Price, Julie Berry, Ruth Bertaccini, Joan Mosley, Anne Padget, Karle deProsse, Lorna Straka

Holly is calling the Opportunity Quilt postcard a “rack” card. She printed generic ones with the dates of the quilt show. She’ll add details as we get them.

Marta let us know that the LDS church might not be available for judging next year. They’ll be doing remodeling, but the timeframe is unknown. Several people said that they would check on possible other options. We normally intake on Wednesday (May 3), do judging on Thursday (May 4) and then take to the fairgrounds on May 5.

We discussed raising entry fees since the Fairgrounds has raised their rates so much. Joan proposed raising the fees to $10 for one day and $15 for 2. Susie seconded. All approved.

Since there are so many new members in the guild, we discussed having a “Featured New Members” section at the Quilt Show.

Joan proposed a Quilt Show theme of “Celebrating the Artist Within” to highlight that we’re all artists regardless of the style of quilt.

We also discussed putting up the name tags from our name tag exchange around the show.

Many guilds take a much higher percent for Country Store. Sophia proposed raising the % to 20%. Marta 2nd. All approved.

Holly proposed to continue with no boutique because of the limited space. Lorna 2nd. All approved. This led to a discussion of some members selling new items in the Country Store. Karle said that we need to make sure that all vendors are signing a form that says that they’ll pay sales tax on any new items they sell.

Sally proposed raising the judging fees to $12. The cost of judging has gone up. For non-members, the one time fee would be $15. Karle 2nd. All approved.

The next meeting is Oct 18 from 1-3 at the LDS church.
